

giro fabio bortolani

The key feature of Giro is the screw mechanism that allows the user to adjust the stool to their required height. A slightly concave, disk-shaped seat and four slender metal legs secured to a circle band ensure stability.

Base in sandblasted stainless steel or powder coated in white or black. Its footrest is in satinless steel with seat in stainless steel, curved plywood available in several finishes or upholstered in soft leather.

materials:

frame	seat
 stainless steel sandblasted	 blanched oak powder coated: black	 black open pore powder coated: white	 white lacquered stainless steel
	 soft-leather 7 colors

dimensions:

