

havana lievore altherr molona

Havana represents a personal combination of understatement and comfort, elegance and versatility. A sofa with an original and minimalist design, capable of attracting attention of first glance within the space and of transforming, with a simple action, into a generously sized bed or roomy storage unit.

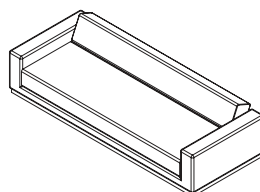

materials:

The frame is in wood upholstered in differentiated-density polyurethane foam. The covers can be in fabric or leather. The base is available covered in matte or gloss aluminium or wenge, or polished Chromed Steel.
