

johns wide rodolfo dordoni

Media storage synonymous with dynamism, modernity, a desire to change, involved in more marked horizontal development. As far as design performance is concerned, three words are enough: freedom of interpretation. This means opening design to countless opportunities, allowing it to cross the many ideas of furniture and go beyond them.

materials:

Frame:

made of sandwich wood 70mm in thickness oak-veneered, open-pore Moka lacquered. Wood back panel 20mm in thickness, glossy lacquered in granite, mud, petroleum and sand colors.

Door Module:

made of wood, 30mm in thickness, glossy lacquered in granite, mud, petroleum and sand colors; built-in metal handle, black-nickel finish. Interior tempered glass shelf 10mm in thickness and sandwich wood shelf 70mm in thickness; open-pore moka lacquered oak finish

TV Module:

composed of 2 panels- a back panel and a front TV panel-, both designed to accommodate the electric cables and scart connectors. Panel 20mm in thickness, glossy lacquered in granite, mud, petroleum and sand colors. The module is fitted with a base made of open-pore moka lacquered oak. The base is fitted with wheels for easier movement.

Feet:

adjustable metal feet with protective felt glides.

