COSY CURVE

Designed by Francesco Rota

Rota carries the most classic of the MDF Italia padded elements, Cosy sofa, towards a style inspired by soft lines and even warmer. In addition to the existing modules characterised by seats of different depths and lengths and the newest island elements, a new version with a curved base and backrest is added, ideal for creating ideal to create an atmosphere of conviviality thanks to its dialoguing faces.

Cosy Curve becomes the natural centre of gravity around which the fluid spaces of the modern home, or the large open space of the office and hospitality world rotate, the sinuous proportions of the seats and the curved line of the sofa offer a pleasant feeling of cosiness and comfort.

FRAME

Bearing frame made of solid and multilayer wood, base with elastic belts, feet and concealed hook system.

Padding: variable-density foam polyurethane padding and cover in polyester wadding.

MODULES
