Everything from the name, synonymous with purity and strength, and the Mediterranean architecture that inspires it exudes sincerity and authenticity. A layer of soft wool with a background of jute. Two apparently antagonistic languages that dialogue to perfection. A fresh, permeable geometry on the second stratum updates an eminently classical design, and gives it a highly contemporary appearance.

materials:

Jute and wool with cotton backing. Pouf filling in 100% foam rubber. Pillow filling in 100% polyester.
