

Vlek Collection Karim Rashid

Vlek speaks of our roots as humans, our roots on this green earth and our growth towards a new future driven by digital technology. Besides its attractive and original design, Vlek also interprets the concept of sustainability of our habitat. Vlek has the option of a self-watering system that permits autonomy of watering for 120 days, which guarantees the perfect care for your plants even though you are away on vacation, thanks to its watering reservoir and feeding system.
