

curve tom dixon

Is it a satellite, or is it an Art Deco sculpture? Neither actually. It is a new curved geometrial light that pushes the boundaries of thin sheet etched metal fabrication. With its microscopic precision - pierced surface and soft nickel silver coating, Curve internally reflects and emits a filtered glow of ethereal light.

Available as a pendant light in two size variations or as a wall light.

materials:

Brass in silver color

dimensions:

