

hang-up salvatore+marie

This sleekly designed coat hook by Salvatore and Marie is a wonderful addition to any home and can be used to hang a number of items from coats and scarves to keys and other accessories. This item is carefully handcrafted using excellent taste in design to produce this excellent cast aluminium shell. The design itself is very unusual but also provocative and will stand out wherever you install it. This wall mounted has a very round and bubbly appearance which will look great in a vestibule taking on similar principles in terms of its decorations. Alternatively this could be used in a much plainer room to add some colour and excitement to the overall appearance.
