

madame philippe starck

Kartell presents the latest Philippe Starck upholstered chair: Madame- World of Emilio Pucci edition. The product is part of the fashion house's Cities of the World project, which was created to celebrate Emilio Pucci's stores throughout the world. It features a capsule collection of limited-edition scarves that flaunt the Florentine brand's trademark style and lead visitors on a virtual journey through color and design. The prints in the project are abstract yet remain faithful to the architecture, landscapes and fascinating details where the Emilio Pucci boutiques can be found. Madame comes in four different prints depicting Avenue Montaigne in Paris, Rome's Piazza di Spagna, New York's iconic skyscrapers, and now four distinctive districts of Shanghai.
