

bek giulio lacchetti

Folding chair.

A single closed structure in polypropylene encompasses the rear legs and backrest. The injection is reinforced with fiberglass in order to obtain a seating that is both rigid and light at the same time. The slots on the rear supports emphasize the sliding movement of the seat during opening and closing.

materials:

Seat and back in reinforced polypropylene.
Structure in painted metal or in steel.

