

passe-partout design magis

As its name suggests, Passe-partout is a table suitable for any space and occasion, as well as looking great with any chair from the Magis catalogue. Passe-partout offers solutions for all settings: from bars and restaurants to homes or offices. There is a version with a stainless steel base and column, and small, round HPL tops (in three different heights), particularly suitable for contract purposes, and another with four legs and rectangular sheet steel tops (available in four sizes), better-suited for dining rooms or meeting rooms.

Materials

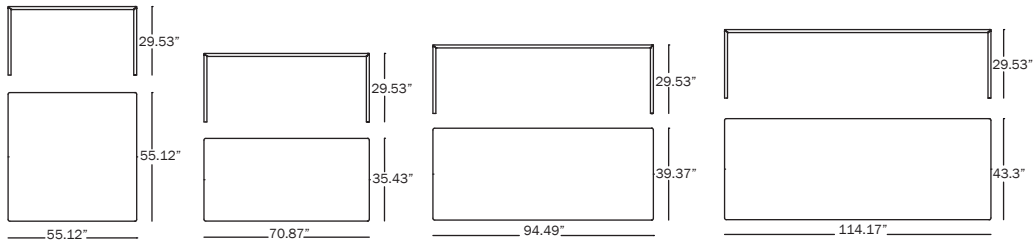

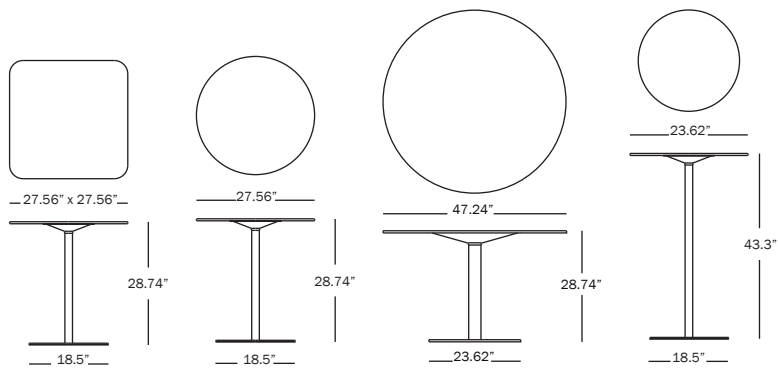

Base and frame in satined stainless steel or extruded aluminium painted in polyester powder. Top in HPL or Self-bearing top in steel plate painted in polyester powder. Suitable for outdoor use.
