

Richards by Rodolfo Dordoni

Experimentation and research are the ingredients that have allowed a perfect balance between aesthetic and function. The result is a combination of cold metal and soft, inviting cushions.

The backrest is made from hand-woven leather string in either natural or black. The metal frame is black lacquer.

